Exposing Le Roy Froom's Book Evangelism

THE PLAN THAT CHANGED THE ADVENTIST CHURCH

Le Roy Froom admitted that he found nothing in the writings of our pioneers concerning the Trinity, and that he studied the subject in books outside of our faith. He even had the audacity to imply that men outside of Adventism had a "deeper spiritual insight into God than our own pioneers!"

So what did he admit to doing next? He said the plan was to change our standard works and eliminate what our pioneers taught regarding the Godhead!

Most believe that the quotes called "EV" or "Evangelism" are from a book written by Ellen White, but it was compiled by Froom in 1946, which was 30 years after her death. The headings, subheadings and bolded texts before the quotes in his book are NOT her words, and some included the word "Trinity" which she never wrote!

Le Roy Froom

This is an intro page to the book Evangelism which is a compilation from the writings of Sister Ellen White. Found under the heading, "The Issues" you will find a separate page on Leroy Froom. It is very revealing that there was an agenda involved in changing the church's core belief system and history. That agenda was to portray Sister White as a full fledged trinitarian by carefully selecting quotes from her writings, narrowly cropping them to make them appear different than their real context and meaning. Roy Allan Anderson and Louise Kleuser along with Froom under the encouragement of Elder Branson were the culprits. Leroy Froom was a historian that re-wrote our church history and carried it almost single handedly into it's wrongful direction for 50 years.

Under the heading of Evangelism on this website, you may use the drop down menu to view five popular and distorted quotes used by the compilation of Froom and company. We have attempted to share light on the subject matter in it's more full context. These pages include the titles:

- Is the Holy Spirit a Person?
- Personality of the Holy Spirit
- Eternal Heavenly Dignitaries
- In Cooperation with the Three Highest Powers
- The Heavenly Trio
- The Power of God in the Third Person

Dear Miss Kleuser:

As we are well aware, Evangelism had a profound effect when it appeared in enforcing and unfolding the clear teachings of the Spirit of Prophecy on the great Eternal Verities.

You had a very definite part in this. I am asking if you would frame a letter for me so that I can have it on record, telling just what was done to round out and make effective in these lines what was not first envisioned by the White Estate-- That of course would not have to be brought in--but under the encouragement of Elder Branson and our own burden in the Ministerial Association, just what was done to round out that book.

May I thank you for this. If you need to talk to me more about it we can chat over the phone about it.

Very sincerely in the Master's service,

L. E. Froom

Back in the days of Dr. Kellogg at the turn of the 20th century, Sister White had to battle the usage of her writings taken from their original context for an agenda of another writer. Dr. Kellogg quoted her and then added his writings with his interpretation and beliefs along side them. This was done to further credibility to his book and whatever else he was peddling.

Well, in this COMPILATION of her writings in the book Evangelism, the same tactic has been used. Sadly thou, Sister White was not around to correct them and take them to task like she was able to do with Dr. Kellogg. Here is a quote to think about in regards to this:

"I have some things to say to our teachers in reference to the new book, "The Living Temple." Be careful how you sustain the sentiments of this book regarding the personality of God. As the Lord represents matters to me, these sentiments do not bear the endorsement of God. They are a snare that the enemy has prepared for these last days. I thought that this would surely be discerned, and that it would not be necessary for me to say anything about it. But since the claim has been made that the teachings of this book can be sustained by statements from my writings, I am compelled to speak in denial of this claim. There may be in this book expressions and sentiments that are in harmony with my writings. And there may be in my writings many statements which, when taken from their connection, and interpreted according to the mind of the writer of "The Living Temple," would seem to be in harmony with the teachings of this book. This may give apparent support to the assertion that the sentiments in "The Living Temple" are in harmony with my writings. But God forbid that this opinion should prevail."
